WISHES ASTORIA MERCHANTS TO USE TILLAMOOK PRODUCTS

Claude Thayer, Prominent Banker Visits City.

Claude Thayer, the Tillamook banker and lawyer, is in the city. Mr. Thayer is at the head of a number of large enterprises in Tillamook, among which is the Robinson Cheese Company which does a large business here, and yesterday he interviewed a number of firms who handle their product. Mr. Thayer is trying to interest our merchants in handling all kinds of Tillamook root crops which are grown down there better than any place else and as this country is directly tributary to Astoria, merchants should handle them instead of going to California for their supplies. Mr. Thayer will leave for Portland today, where he has some legal business to attend to.

J. H. TURNER DEAD.

Old Time Resident of South Bend, Daughter and Nephew to Attend Funeral.

Word was received here yesterday of the death of J. H. Turner, who has resided in South Bend, Pacific county, Wash., for the past thirty years. The deceased has served three terms as sheriff of his county and filled the office of postmaster at the time of his death. Mrs. D. G. Malarkey, a daughter living in this city, survives him. She leaves this morning accompanied by her husband, to attend the funeral at South Bend. S. C. Turner, a nephew residing here, will also go over today.

Will Go to Oregon City.

The Astoria hose team will participate in the firemen's tournament at Oregon City on July 2, 3 and 4. The team will leave for Oregon City one week from tonight and expect to win several races.

Mayor Johansen Will Resign.

It is reported that J. H. Johansen, mayor of Seaside, will tender his resignation next month, on account of the pressure of private business. His successor has not been named.

MRS. CELLER SUFFERS

FRACTURE OF RIGHT WRIST

Slips on Sidewalk and Sustains Very Painful Injury.

After spending the afternoon with some friends yesterday Mrs. Charles M. Celler sustained, what, in medical parlance, is termed a simple fracture of the right wrist. The accident occurred about 6 o'clock last evening in front of the Celler residence at 188 Third street. Mr. Celler was summoned and promptly arrived after summoning Dr. Fulton.

The fracture was temporarily adjusted in a card-board splint which will be replaced today with a modern wire-frame splint, thus obviating the necessity of an ordinary plaster cast. Mrs. Celler, who suffered much pain during the night, is reported to be resting easily this morning. According to Dr. Fulton, the patient will be able to use her right hand again within thirty days.

Editorial Association Coming.

The National Editorial Association, now on its way to the Portland fair, will visit Astoria early this week. A special train will be run from Portland over the A. & C. R. R. for the accommodation of the visiting editors. The announcement of the intention of the association to come here was made late, so there is little opportunity to make preparations for a reception worthy of the occasion.

Renewing Acquaintances.

C. S. Norris, of New York, formerly with A. Booth & Company, but now at the head of a large commission business in that city, arrived in Astoria today and is renewing old acquaintances here. He is on a general business trip to the Coast and expects to leave on the next steamer for California.

WILL BE FITTING

City Will Have Splendid Celebration on Fourth of July.

CITY HALL DEDICATION

Committee Of Arrangements Meet With Success. Fund is Increased. Soldiers Coming From Forts. Meeting to Be Held today for Final Preparations.

The announcement is made by the Fourth of July committee that Astoria is to have a grand celebration and that the observance of the anniversary of the Nation's birthday in the "City by the Sea" will compare favorably with the festivities in larger communities. The fund for the occasion has been considerably swelled and there is great promise of more and substantial subscriptions.

It is already known that several bodies of soldiers from the forts at the mouth of the river will be here to participate in the celebration. The dedication of the new City Hall structure will follow festivities in the morning amid the banging of crackers and the booming of cannon. Many prominent speakers will be heard in bursts of fervent oratory. A final meeting of the committee will be held this evening at which will be consummated. The program for the day will be announced later.

CHARTER PERMITS CITY COUNCIL TO CLOSE BROTHELS

May Pass an Ordinance Prohibiting Maintenance of Dance Halls.

The charter provides that the City Council may pass an ordinance, prohibiting the existence of the dance halls. It need surprise none if the owners of these places will ultimately give up the fight, in the knowledge that defeat is bound to come.

POLICE COURT ITEMS.

Maud Thompson, arrested for vagrancy on the complaint of City Physician Pilkington, was discharged because the prosecuting witness failed to appear.

Dr. E. C. Linton was accused of selling liquor without a license. Four witnesses were examined but they denied that they had bought any liquors at his place of business, and the court discharged the defendant.

At Fisher's Opera House.

Thelma, the Mystic, who appears at Fishers' during all of next week has accomplished some remarkable things in her time. Three years ago a mysterious murder case occurred at Toledo, O., a man having disappeared. Detectives who were detailed upon the case finally gave it up in despair, but the chief of police of the city called upon Thelma in the hope of securing information concerning the missing man. Thelma informed him that the body was at a certain bend in the river and investigation, although begun with skepticism, proved that the statement was correct. She has performed many feats equally as wonderful as that related here. Thelma locates stolen or lost articles and gives advice to those who are in need of it. One of her most noteworthy performances is given at
